A group of five people are sitting on a beach at sunset. A man in a dark t-shirt is playing an acoustic guitar and smiling. He is surrounded by four other people: a man in a blue cap and dark shirt, a woman in a white shirt, a man in a striped shirt, and a woman with long blonde hair. They are all looking towards the guitarist. In the foreground, there are two striped beach chairs. The background shows the ocean waves and the sandy beach under a warm, golden light.

Dubai Islands

ONE OF DUBAI'S BOLDEST DISTRICTS

Dubai Islands

FIVE DISTINCT WORLDS
BY THE SEA

Dubai Islands brings a new kind of coastal district to Dubai's northern shoreline, spanning 17 square kilometres across five interconnected islands. Across these islands, beaches, waterfront promenades, and lively boardwalks shape a setting built around the sea and the energy that comes with it.

Within this coastal environment, hotels, marinas, cultural venues, and retail boulevards bring together leisure, dining, and everyday experiences, allowing residents and visitors to move easily between them. The islands connect to the mainland through a major bridge, while landscaped parks, cycling paths, and walkable streets extend this active waterfront setting into the wider community.

CONTEMPORARY DESIGN

shaped by the coast

Ramada Residences at Dubai Islands presents a contemporary coastal design with wide glass façades and deep balconies that extend the living spaces outward. Curved slab edges and continuous terraces create generous outdoor areas for each residence, while floor-to-ceiling glazing allows natural light to enter the interiors and frames open views toward the park and the sea.

The Lobby

The lobby at Ramada Residences at Dubai Islands opens through a double-height glass façade, bringing in natural light and views. Warm wood, stone finishes, and soft textures shape the space, with a sculptural chandelier and layered seating adding depth.

A Contemporary Coastal Interior Language

The interiors at Ramada Residences at Dubai Islands draw from a soft, coastal sensibility, shaped through warm wood tones, light stone finishes, and a muted palette that reflects the surrounding landscape.

A woman with dark hair is floating on her back in clear, vibrant blue water. She is wearing a bright red one-piece swimsuit. Her eyes are closed, and she has a peaceful expression. The water is crystal clear, showing the texture of her swimsuit and her skin. The word 'Amenities' is written in a large, white, serif font across the middle of the image, partially overlapping the woman's torso and the water.
